

Save Money on Your Rosters

MRSC Rosters more efficiently helps you connect with small works businesses and consultants!

Realize the value of consolidating services by using MRSC Rosters, shared small public works and consultant rosters as an affordable and convenient alternative to maintaining your own rosters. More information at www.mrscrosters.org.

Washington cities, counties, and authorized special purpose districts use MRSC Rosters to maintain their small public works and consultant rosters. For a nominal annual fee, the service saves resources by hosting individual rosters within a shared database, posting the required annual legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation, supporting businesses with registration, verifying business eligibility to be listed, programming the searchable database, and assisting with roster records retention.

Save Money and Staff Resources MRSC Shared Rosters provide:

- Annual Roster Legal Notice
- Business Registration Support
- Initial Verification of Business Eligibility
- Searchable Online Roster Database
- Records Retention Assistance
